

NO DINNER ON SUNDAY...

Where Will I Eat? _____

The most often asked question during registration is, "What time do we eat?" The UM Summer Camps offer no food service in the Residence Halls on Sunday. Don't worry, there are many eating options within walking distance for you to choose from.

The Michigan Union, located across the street from South Quad and next to West Quad, offers a variety of fast foods in its ground floor food court.

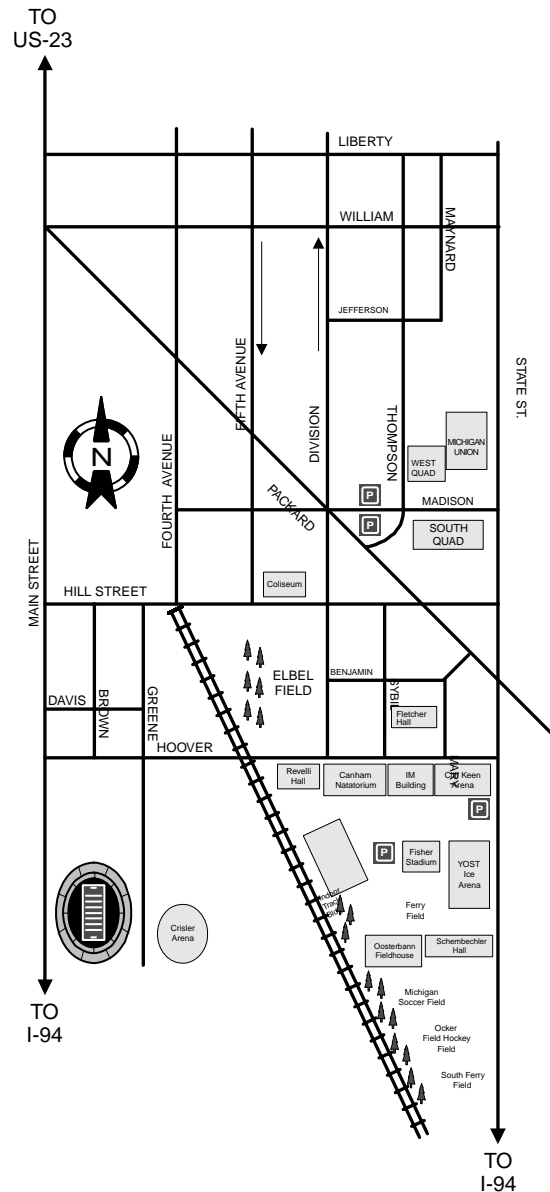

There are also many ethnic, fast food, and family restaurants in the University of Michigan/Ann Arbor area. Consult the yellow pages for a complete listing or visit the Ann Arbor Area Convention and Visitors Bureau at: www.annarbor.org

Congratulations on your excellent decision to become a UM Summer Camps participant. You are now a part of the proud athletic tradition at the University of Michigan. Best wishes for a successful, rewarding, and fun camp experience.

Residence Hall Housing

Residence Hall housing is commonly subdivided into communities called “houses”. South Quad is subdivided into eight “houses”: Bush, Fred, Gomberg, Huber, Taylor, Kelsey, Hunt and Thronson. These houses provide the opportunity for campers to participate in evening social activities and to make new friends. Facilities within the Quad provide: dining rooms, a television viewing room, and indoor and outdoor activities. All houses have floor-shared baths.

Registration

Check-in and check-out times will vary according to each camp. Please refer to your individual camp schedule for actual check-in and check-out times.

For information regarding your particular camp, check their website at: mgoblue.com/camp/

Staff Supervision

The UM Summer Camps experience provides athletes with a supervisory staff which includes: a Camp Director, an Assistant Camp Director, six skilled camp coordinators, fifty trained camp counselors and ten terrific office staff persons, all ready to supervise and to direct campers while they are in the residence hall in the evening and overnight. Daytime supervision is provided by the Athletic Sports Camp.
